

Mattertags

Mattertags are a great way of adding additional information to your 3D space. These can contain anything from simple descriptions to photos, videos, internet links etc.

These are a great way of 'displaying your wares'. For example, estate agents can identify what is, or is not included in the sale.

Unless you require a significant high number, Tags are generally included in the cost of the project.